2. The cadets seeking transfer has a brother/sister (not cousin) studying in the receiving school.
3. Transfer on medical grounds of cadet only certified by the RMO of the school where the cadet is presently studying. No transfers will be permitted on medical grounds of parents/relatives.

ACADEMIC FACILITIES

With the tremendous developments in the field of education and educational infrastructure, the Rashtriya Military Schools too have developed their infrastructural facilities to match the best available. State-of-art equipment and buildings are slowly augmenting the existing facilities. The Schools offer the best facilities of residential public schools with all the amenities made available to the Cadets.

SPORTS AND GAMES FACILITIES

The academic growth of the Cadets at Rashtriya Military Schools is substantially augmented with a wide range of sports and games embedded within the curriculum. The Schools have facility for pursuance of almost all sports and games. The Cadets are encouraged to actively participate in games and sports and specialized coaching is imparted by trained Army personnel. The academic calendar of the schools schedules a number of sporting events and competitions, to create in the cadets the required competitive edge. The Schools provide facilities for daily games in Football, Hockey, Cricket, Basketball, Volleyball, Table Tennis, Boxing and Athletics. Daily morning P.T. is compulsory for the Cadets.

HOUSE SYSTEM

Cadets reside in Houses. The Houses are the intrinsic units of the schools but each house has its own motto and colour which gives each one of them a separate identity and house spirit. The Cadets are distributed equally in all houses. Each house has a Hostel Superintendent and a warder to look after the personal comforts & welfare of the Cadets. Each house is provided with a Dish TV set for recreation of cadets.

MEDICAL AND HEALTH CARE

The Schools have an MI Room with the presence of Medical Officer / Nursing Assistants. Special care is taken of the health of the cadets. Detailed medical history charts are maintained for individual cadets and a careful and accurate periodical record of height, weight and chest measurements is kept. Cadets who need special treatment are sent to other hospitals having requisite facilities. Where payment is required to be made, it is communicated to cadet's parents.

MESSING

The Schools provide to the cadets well-balanced, and nourishing diet. The cadets are served three meals a day in addition to milk in the morning and tea & snacks in the forenoon and afternoon. The daily menu invariably includes fresh fruit, milk, butter, jam, eggs, cereals, vegetables and meat/fish/chicken. Separate arrangement exists for vegetarians and non-vegetarians.

CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Varied activities like Photography, Dramatics, Art & Craft, Wood Work, Music, Debating and Declamation are organized with the aim of helping cadets to make an intelligent use of their leisure time.

Co-curricular activities play an important part in the training imparted to the cadets. The schools provide an ample scope for the development of the students creative skills in fine arts and crafts.

NCC Training is compulsory for all the cadets. The Schools have Army, Air and Naval Wings of Senior / Junior Division NCC as available and feasible. In addition Scouting and Trekking are regular features of extracurricular activities.

DISCIPLINE

Cadets are required to follow School discipline meticulously. Younger cadets are guided and helped by the senior cadets to learn to live in a disciplined way. If a cadet is declared undesirable he/she will be sent home immediately at parents' cost and risk. In such cases, the decision of the Principal shall be final and binding. Ragging is strictly prohibited in the school as per the guidelines of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. Cadets may be withdrawn from the school by the school authority on grounds of extreme indiscipline cases.

RASHTRIYA MILITARY SCHOOL, BELGAUM

ABOUT US

Rashtriya Military School, Belgaum was founded on 30th December 1945 at Belgaum in the then Bombay province. It was then called King George VI Royal Indian Military College. This was the fourth such institution set up in the country. Initially admission to the school was restricted to the wards of JCOs and OR of the Army and their equivalent ranks in the Navy and Air Force. The cadets were prepared for the Army Special Certificate Education Examination. The instructional staff was drawn exclusively from the Army Educational Corps. It was incumbent upon all cadets to join the defence service after finishing School. On Republic Day 1950, the School was renamed King George's Military College. In July 1952, the School was re-organized along the lines of Residential Public Schools. Admissions were thrown open to the wards of service Officers as well as Civilians. The school switched over to the Senior Cambridge Certificate Examination and the pre-condition for admission that all wards should join the defence services was withdrawn. The School was simultaneously renamed as King George's School.

In 1963, the School was affiliated to the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE), New Delhi and the students switched over to the Higher Secondary Examination conducted by the Board. On 01 January 1966, the School was renamed 'Belgaum Military School'. Belgaum, In January 1988 the prefix 'Belgaum' was dropped and the School was redesignated 'Military School Belgaum'. Since Jun 2007, the school is known as Rashtriya Military School, Belgaum.

LOCATION

The School is ideally located in Belgaum Cantonment, on the outskirts of Belgaum city, which is one of the fastest growing cities in northwest Karnataka. The district of Belgaum borders two states, Maharashtra and Goa. It is about 100 km (by road) from Hubli, which is one of the bigger junctions on the South-Central Railway. Belgaum is also connected by rail (single line) to Pune, Miraj, Londa and Hubli.

Touching the border of two states, Maharashtra and Goa, Belgaum is one of the oldest towns in Karnataka. Lying at a distance of 502 km from Bangalore and 500 km from Mumbai. Belgaum is endowed with natural beauty and lush green environment which create a world of contrast and harmony, with and swift kaleidoscopic changes in topography, vegetation and climate (50" rainfall). Its hinterland offers a rich resource mix, attracting people as tourist, settlers, job-seekers and entrepreneurs making it a veritable paradise or a 'poor man's Switzerland'.

RASHTRIYA MILITARY SCHOOL, BENGALURU

ABOUT US

King George Royal Indian Military College, Bangalore was established on 1 August 1946 to facilitate education of the wards of defence personnel from South India. Cadets were educated from III to VI to enable them to appear for the Army's Special Examination, which was equivalent to high school education. The three Houses, at those times were Coot, Give and Cornwallis.

The School was reorganised in September 1952 and was thrown open to wards of commissioned officers and civilians. The name of the school was shortened to King George's School. The school motto was 'Play the Game'. A member of IPSC (Indian Public School Conference) the school prepared cadets for 'Senior Cambridge Examination' from 1952 to 1962. The nascent patriotic fervour found its local expression when the houses were renamed as Rajaji, Nehru and Mountbatten. The Mountbatten House was changed to Tagore House and a new House by name Shastri House was created. In 1966, The School's name was altered to 'Bangalore Military School' and after four years of its affiliation to ICSE, the school adopted a CBSE syllabus in 1967.

In 1969, the school's motto was changed to "Sheelam Param Bhushanm ", a Sanskrit Shloka which means "Character is the highest virtue". Thereafter, the school celebrated its Diamond Jubilee from 08th Dec to 10th Dec 2006. In July 2007 the school was redesignated as "Rashtriya Military School" Bangalore.

LOCATION

Rashtriya Military School, Bengaluru is located near MG Road at Richmond Town on Hosur Road. Johnson Market and Saint Philomena's Hospital are the main landmarks to reach RMS Bengaluru. The School is 7 Km away from State Bus Stand, 8.5 Km from City Railway Station and 5.6 Km from Cantonment Railway Station. Bengaluru International Airport is 36 Km far from School's location.

RASHTRIYA MILITARY SCHOOL, DHOLPUR

ABOUT US

Rashtriya Military School, Dholpur was the fifth and the youngest of the five Rashtriya Military Schools. Raised on 16th July 1962, the School is the only Rashtriya Military School raised after the Independence.
